William de Calverhall or William de Barker, of Hallon 1314-1337

In these tumultuous years when Edward II was flexing through the West of England from his Queen and his Barons, a son of Ralph de Coverall came from Kent to Hallon in Worfield, Shropshire, and settled at Hallon, taking, we know not why, the name of Barker.

He obtained land at Hallon in Worfield, co. Salop, 1307.

If you believe you may share Y-DNA with this patrilineal group, I recommend submitting a sample through FamilyTreeDNA for the Y-37 STR test and upgrading after your results have been evaluated.
If your Y-37 STR results through FamilyTreeDNA indicate a match within a genealogical timeframe, I recommend upgrading to the Big Y-700 test for more precise haplogroup refinement and SNP discovery.
